

Phonics

Trace the words and match.

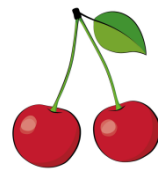

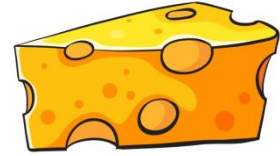

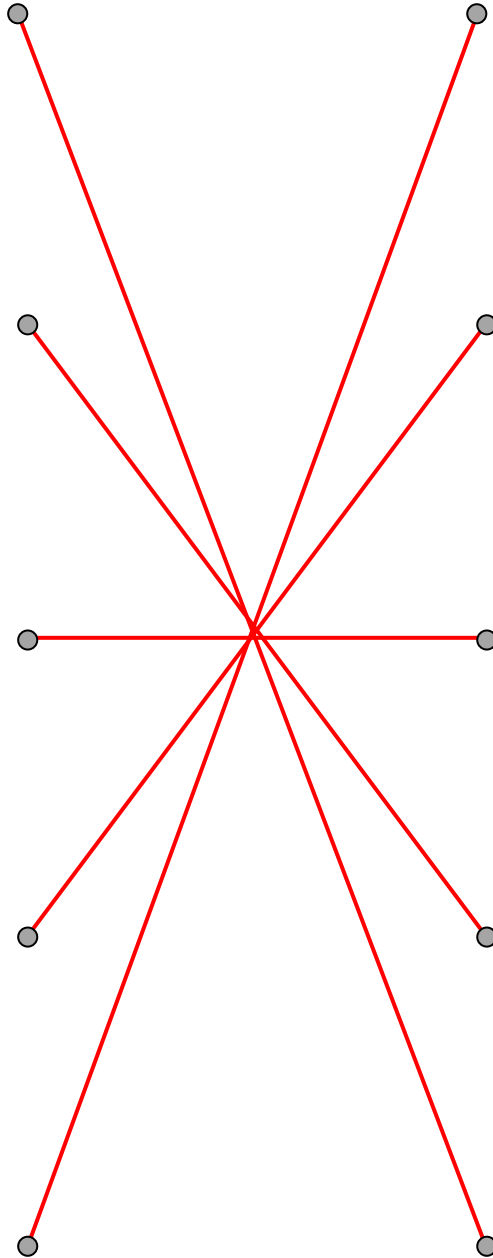

chair

cherry

church

children

cheese

Word Play

Find the words in the word search. All words go across or down.

birthday

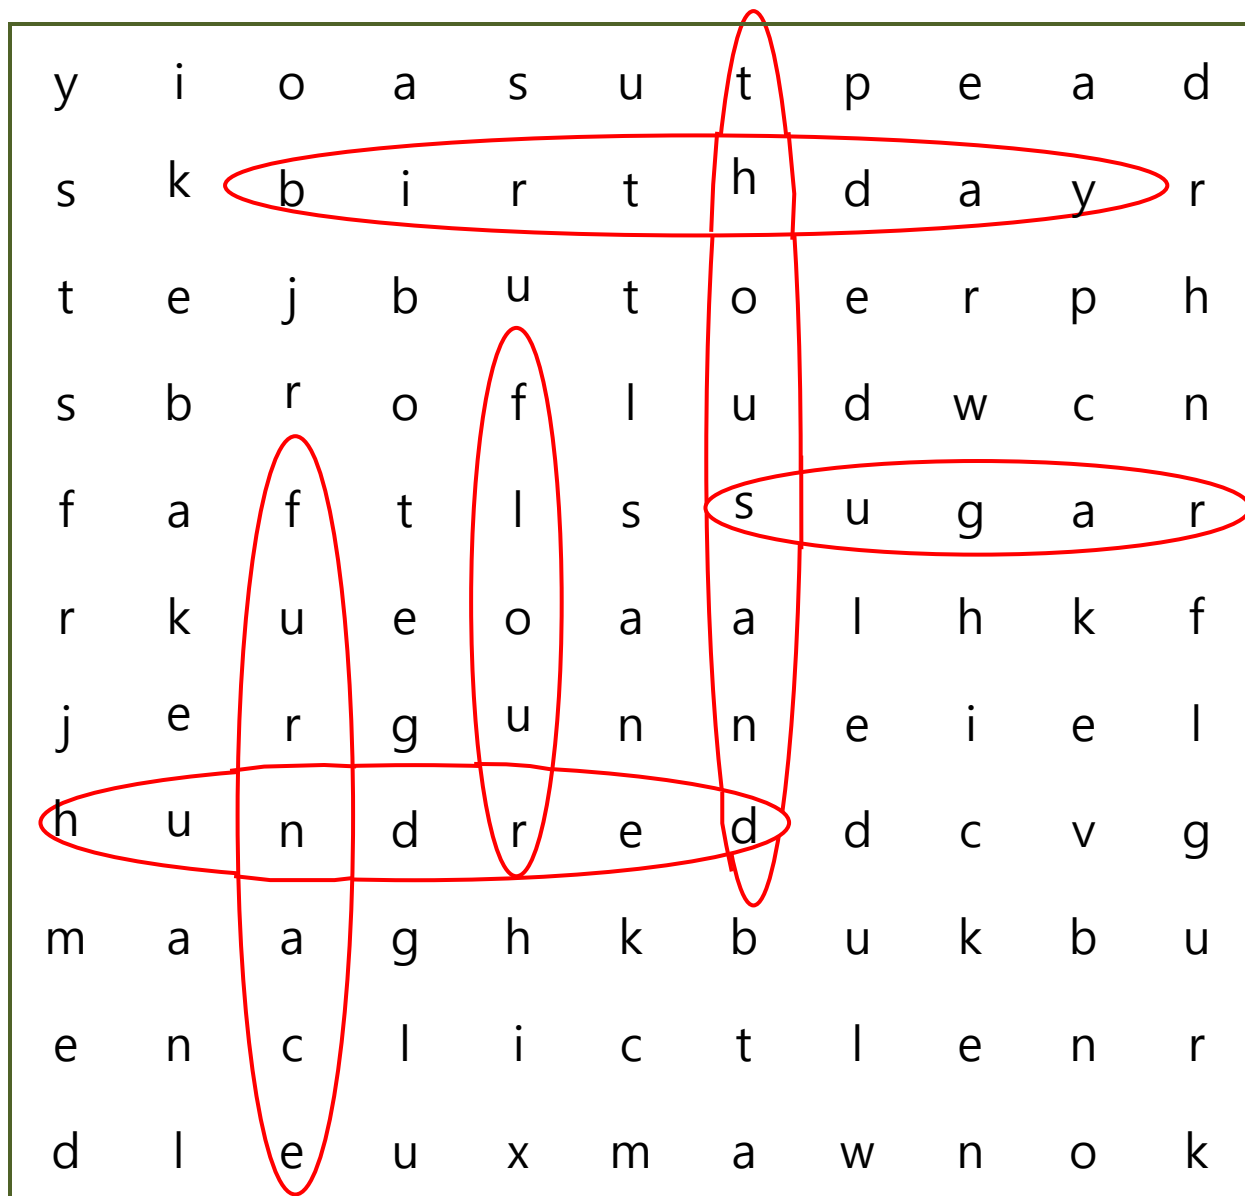

flour

thousand furnace

sugar

hundred

Vocabulary

Circle the correct word to complete the sentence.

1.

Mrs. Giant ( answered / asked ), "Hungry, my dear, what would you like for your birthday?"

2.

Mrs. Giant got a ( moment / mountain ) of flour, a hill of sugar, and a pond full of butter as golden as the sun.

3.

Big mixing trucks ( grew / mixed ) the cherry cake, and bakers baked it in a big furnace.

4.

"You must ( share / shoe ) your cherry cake with all the people in the town.

Reading Comprehension

Answer the questions based on the story.

1. Which was NOT needed for the hungry giant's cake? Cross one out.

1,000 eggs	1 hill of sugar	10,000 cherries
1 lake of milk	1 pond of butter	1 mountain of flour

2. What mixed the cherry cake?

- a. big mixing bowls
- b. big mixing trucks
- c. big mixing furnaces

3. Which is NOT true?

- a. People didn't want to make a cake for the giant.
- b. The hungry giant wanted to eat the cake all by himself.
- c. Mrs. Giant told her husband to share the cake with everyone.

4. What can be the message of this story?

- a. Making a giant cake is easy.
- b. Sharing makes everyone happy.
- c. Always use butter..

Sentence Structure

Choose the correct sentence.

	The hugs him give people.
✓	The people gave him hugs.

✓	They gave him birthday presents.
	They gave presents him birthday.

	Their cherries gave her one all hundred cherry trees.
✓	One hundred cherry trees gave her all their cherries.

✓	One thousand hens gave her one thousand eggs.
	One thousand hens one thousand eggs gave her.

Book Report

Name		Date
Title	The Hungry Giant's Birthday Cake
Author	Joy Cowley	Illustrator	Mary Bausman
Characters	giant, Mrs. Giant, people
Write 5 new words from the book.
1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
Draw your favorite part of the story from the book.			