

Phonics

Follow the line and write a new word in the blank.

Word Play

Find the words in the word search. All words go across or down.

fantastic

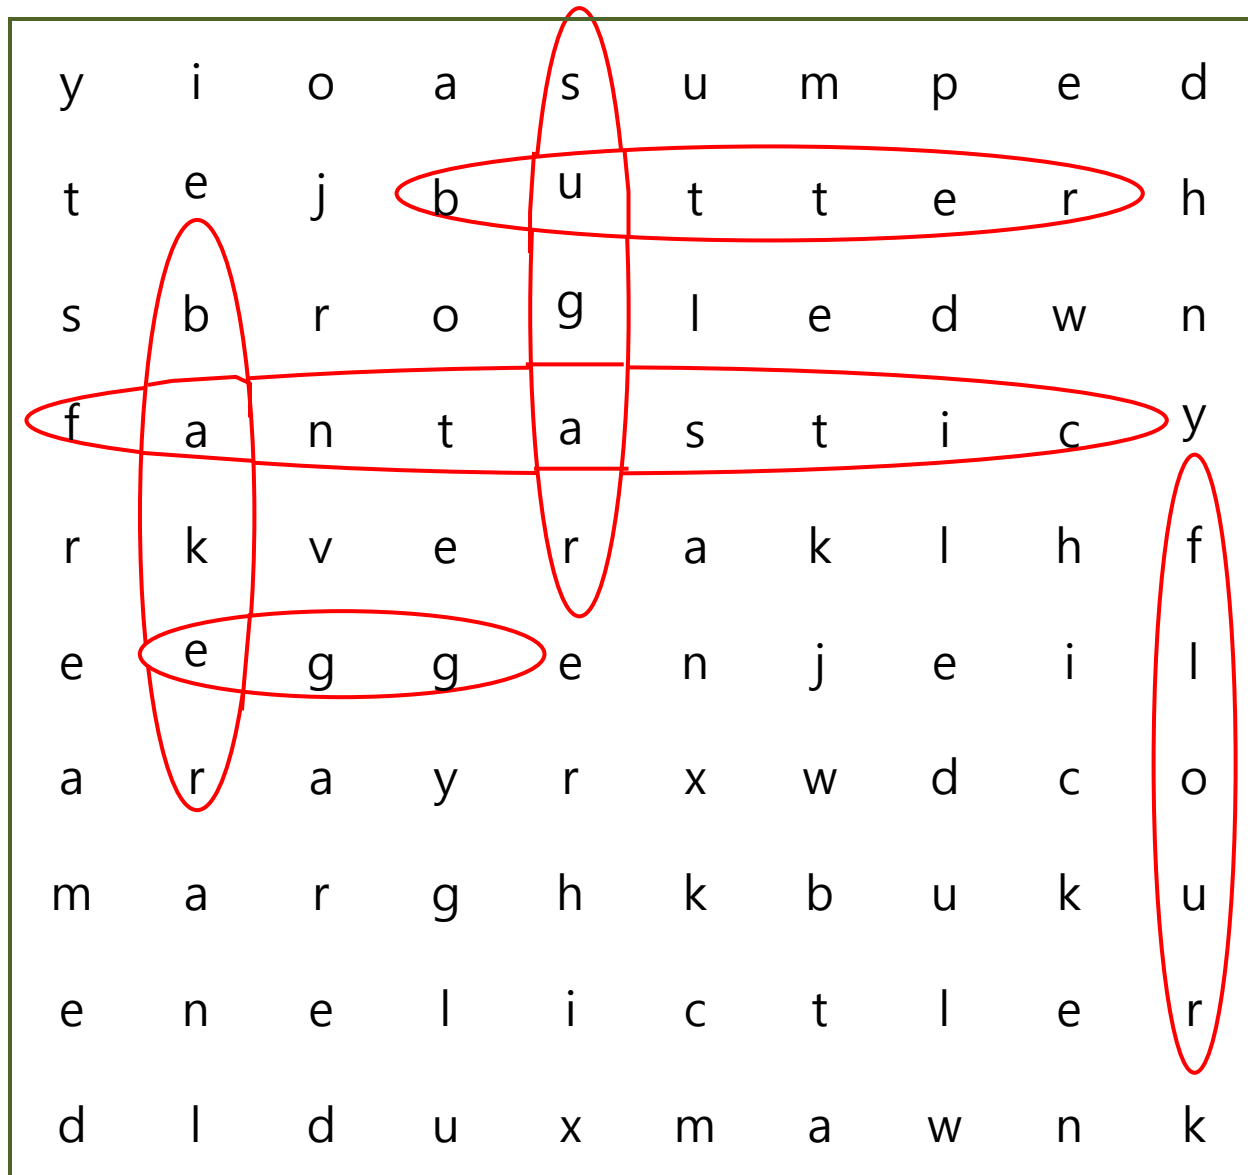

butter

egg

sugar

flour

baker

Vocabulary

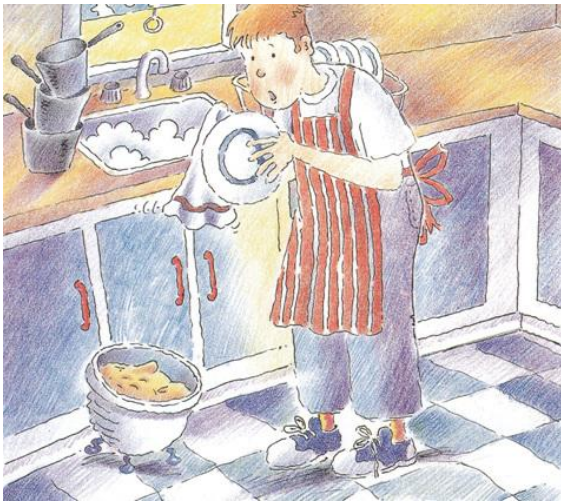

Fill in the blanks with the given words.

sang

come cake

around

The cake ran to the baker's boy.

The cake sang, "Bake me! Bake me!
Eat me if you can."

"Come to me," said the baker's girl,
but the cake ran away.

Around and around it ran and out the kitchen door.

Reading Comprehension

1. Who is NOT in this story?

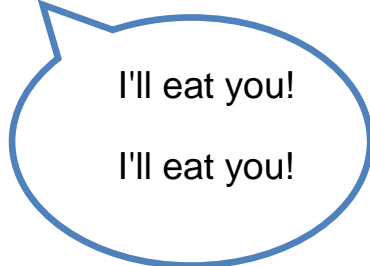

- a. the baker's cat b. the baker's boy c. the baker's girl

2. What did the baker mix in a bowl? Circle all of them.

<input checked="" type="radio"/> sugar	cheese	<input checked="" type="radio"/> eggs
<input checked="" type="radio"/> flour	salt	<input checked="" type="radio"/> butter

3. What did the cake sing?

a.

b.

c.

4. What happened at the end of the story?

- a. The baker baked the cake.
b. The cake ran to the river.
 c. The dog ate the cake up.

Sentence Structure

Choose the correct sentence.

1.

Cake the sang.

The cake sang.

2.

"Bake me! Bake me! Eat me if you can."

"Bake I! Bake I! Eat I if you can."

3.

"Come here," said the baker.

"The baker," said come here.

4.

The cake ran but away.

But the cake ran away.

Book Report

Name		Date
Title	The Fantastic Cake
Author	Joy Cowley	Illustrator	Philip Webb
Characters	baker, baker's girl, baker's boy, cake, baker's dog
Write 5 new words from the book.
1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
Draw your favorite part of the story from the book.			